

Researching Careers

Career Library

Researching careers is one of the best ways to get a better understanding of what careers might be a good fit with your skills and interests. The Career Services library, located on Ikeda 4th Fl, 307, has a variety of books on every career topic and industry.

Internet Sites

- <http://www.bls.gov/>
- <http://online.wsj.com/public/page/news-career-jobs.html>
- <http://www.rileyguide.com/>
- <http://www.jobweb.com/>

Job Search Resources

If you are actively looking for your first career job and/or identifying organizations in which you may want to work, the following are links to job and internship postings:

Avptlweb - NACELink jobs, exclusively for current SUA students, requires log in.

Enter from your portal under student affairs-career services

www.idealists.org- NGO/Non-profit jobs located nationally and internationally

www.usajobs.gov- Federal government jobs in all fields of interest

<http://www.ngo.org/links/index.htm>-Non-profit agency websites

http://www.unsystem.org/jobs/job_opportunities.htm-List of United Nations affiliate job websites

<http://www.careers.state.gov/resources/advisors.html>-Jobs with the US Department of State-Including Foreign Service Officer

<http://www.pirg.org/jobs/about/contactus>-Jobsite for US PIRG (U.S. Public Interest Research Group).

<http://www.jobcentral.com/>-Local and national jobs in all industries

www.monstertrak.com-Entry level local and national jobs

www.careerbuilder.com-General job posting website

<http://online.goinglobal.com/default.aspx>-International career information and job listings

www.teachfroamerica.com- Teach For America website

Internship sites

<http://www.dcinternships.org/>- Washington DC Internships

<http://www.makingthedifference.org/federalinternships/search>-Federal government internships in many field

<http://www.theihs.org/>