The Fruity Snacks

The Fruity Snacks is the club for students who don’t like clubs; it is an improvised theatre club.

In improvisation, there is truth, there is trust, there is positivity, there is tolerance, there is kindness.

The Fruity Snacks is an open club to perform and honour this style of theatre, and to promote all the great aspects of improvisational theater into our everyday lives.

Our mission is to transform the ordinary into extraordinary performers, to build confidence, to create a way to overcome life’s challenges. Our goal is to teach anyone who joins, regardless of past experience, how to perform amazing shows in this style while having fun.

The Fruity Snacks are family and friends, trust and faith, confidence and assurance, work and play, reality and theatrics. And come one, who doesn’t want to build awesome public speaking skills, lifelong friendships, jokes to use in any situation, and so much more?

In improvisational theater, you cannot lose. With the Fruity Snacks, you’re sure to win.

Meetings are Thursdays from 7:00 – 9:00PM in Maathai 105.
