

BRIAN DAISAKU MCCLOSKEY MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

About the Scholarship:

Brian was always learning...how things worked and how they could be made better. He did not color inside the lines, but found other ways of expressing himself. Brian was a friend to people of all backgrounds, without prejudice.

Before his passing, Brian had been planning an adventure across China and was learning Chinese in preparation for the trip. It was to be an off-road motorcycle trip that would take him along a journey of discovery, determination, struggle, transformation, and beauty. The beauty of the journey was that it represented the treasure which exists within all of us. It is the struggle to overcome personal hardships, to discover the strength within, and to use that internal fortitude to transform one's dreams into reality that makes the journey worthwhile.

Brian overcame great challenges in his life in order to make the impossible...possible.

To honor Brian and keep his memory alive, Guy and Doris McCloskey, along with their family and friends, have made a very generous scholarship available to admitted SUA students. To apply for the scholarship, please read Brian's experience at www.bdmsua.org/about-ba, and then complete this application.
