

Office of Financial Aid

Use this form to initiate an appeal for a Special Circumstances Review of Finances if you have experienced a significant change in your family's financial condition or general circumstance.

Information for Completing the Soka Special Circumstances Request for Review

Special financial circumstances that Soka's Office of Financial Aid will consider an appeal for:

- Divorce and/or Legal Separation
- Death of custodial parent
- Changes in financial circumstances due to:
  - Unemployment or significant pay cut
  - Disability of parent
  - One-time loss of income
  - Loss of child support payments
  - Loss of assets due to unforeseen circumstances
  - Other income reduction that can be justified and documented
  - Loss of income due to COVID-19

Financial circumstances not considered for appeal by Soka's Office of Financial Aid:

- Consumer debt
- Private elementary, middle, or high school tuition
- Voluntary termination of employment

Review Request Processing

Soka will begin reviewing requests in June. Upon reviewing the family circumstance and supporting documentation, the Office of Financial Aid will decide whether the appropriate data elements should be adjusted to best reflect the anticipated income/assets available to your family. If we make adjustments, your financial aid will be revised to include eligibility for grants and loans based upon your new Expected Family Contribution (EFC). You will be notified once your request has been reviewed.

Please note: There is no guarantee your request will be processed in time to meet the fall semester tuition deadline! Therefore, you may need to access the financial aid you have already been offered in order to pay your bill. In this situation, any adjustments made as a result of your appeal will be applied retroactively to the fall semester financial aid package you have already received.
